

1877
If all from the City should come, Charlie can sleep in a large room in Dupres Office. You are in sofa in dining room leaving two bedrooms for your family and Seddie.

will not get a very long letter this week. Thanksgiving is coming and there are so many little things to be done before then that I hardly know which way to turn. I would say that I don't doubt we can find a place to put Seddie even if the folks do all come from the City. We should be very happy to have her come. I don't know whether Charlie will be home or not. He says his school closes on the 20th. He had heard the offer of one or two schools but has not decided. I wish he could find a good school down this way. I am glad your visit to Cousin

Love went off so pleasantly.
I had no fears about it. On the whole I think it just as well that Mrs. S. did not go, as Cousin Love would not have become so much acquainted with Mrs. S. had she been there. Cousin Love writes that she ~~enjoyed~~ the visit very much and that she liked Mr. S. extremely, I feel good over that fait accompli.

Aunt Fannie declines my invitation to come up and take Thursday dinner with us, as she has invited Abbie Noble to come down with her family.

I had seen in the paper the death of Miss Trent's sister and we felt sure it must be her sister. I am sorry for the poor child. It is hard indeed for one so young to have so much to bear.

Of course she is not at the club house and this will increase your expenses, will it not?